

Gary Marshall

Award-winning comedian Gary Marshall has been a professional now for over 20 years and has established himself as one of the most popular comedians working on the after-dinner circuit, with his unique style and deadpan delivery it gives him an abundant charm which makes him equally at home with both all male and mixed audiences.

Being a third generation comedian, his Dad Jimmy Marshall (of Granada TV's The Comedians) and Granddad Jock Duncan (a renowned Scots comic) you could say comedy runs in the blood.

Gary's first TV appearance came in 1988 on "Bob says Opportunity Knocks" - LOST !!!!. He must have made a big impression as his next TV break came 9 years later on Sky TV's Stand and Deliver. The following year Gary recorded two series of The Comedians for Sky and a Live TV performance on ITV's Big Big Talent Show - LOST!!!!. Victory finally came in 1998 when he won Ready Steady Cook!!!!!! - Get In!!!!!!

With football being his main sporting love, Gary is a regular at many of the Premiership, Nationwide and Non-League football clubs performing at club dinners, testimonials and also the corporate side for pre-match entertainment.

When time allows Gary will always accept invitations to play in company/corporate golf days and playing off 18 he can be a useful member of any team (when I say useful its more often than not useless!!!). The majority of Gary's work in the summer months are golf days and he feels being a part of the whole day gives the right impression and also an insight to his audience at night.

"Just a quick note to thank you for a wonderful performance on the 29th October 2006 at the Safe@Last charity dinner. I think it goes without saying that the audience were delighted with your performance and I must say that our principal guest, the Earl of Scarborough, has asked me to associate his name with this letter.

The evening was a great success and I very much look forward to working with you again in the future on other projects."

Stephen D. Smith MBE

"Gary Marshall - What a find!! Gary was just magnificent. Again, he interacted well with our guests and his humour and delivery ranked with some of the best ever heard. How good to have such an outstanding entertainer."

-Adrian Bailey, Regional Sales Executive, NIG

Award Winning Comedian!